

BASECAMP EAST PARTICIPATION STATEMENT & WAIVER

Terms of Participation

Military Adventure with Basecamp East Ltd involves outdoor activities including but not limited to bushcraft, first aid, self defence, air soft target shooting, hiking, orienteering and other athletic activities. It requires an intermediate level of fitness.

Although Basecamp East takes safety as a number one priority there are the usual risks that occur in the outdoor environment such as falls or cuts, serious injury or even death. Parents of participants in these activities should be aware of and accept these risks before allowing their children to take part and accept that injury may occur despite the safety systems in place. You must consider these risks before you allow your child participate.

This waiver is important, is intended to be legally binding and sets out the terms and conditions that governs our (Basecamp East Ltd) agreement with you:
